

How old is that tree?

Decide on a way of measuring the circumference of the tree at a height of 1m from the ground.

On average a tree will grow at a rate of 2.5cm per year.

Divide your tree circumference by the growth rate to calculate the age of the tree.

In what year do you estimate the tree was planted?

Ollie's Hint: there is a rule above to help you.

