

How big is this field?

Look at the field. It is approximately rectangular in shape.

By pacing the field, estimate the:

- length (metres)
and...
- width (metres)

What could you use to make the measurements more accurate?

Now use these two measurements to calculate the approximate area of the field.

Ollie's Hint: you may wish to round your figures to the nearest ten before you do your calculation.